

ENCLOSURE 10 – CAX Course Duty Uniforms

During your entire stay, you will comply with instructions contained in AR 670-1, “The Wear and Appearance of Army Uniform and Insignia.” This regulation also provides guidance on wearing nametags, U.S. Army tags, unit patches, and all other authorized patches and rank insignia. Ensure required patches and grade insignia are present on your uniforms. If you have any questions, read AR 670-1.

1. Reporting In. APFU: tee-shirt, shorts, jacket, sweat pants, white socks, and sneakers. (Include hat and gloves in the months of October through March.)
2. Eligibility Verification. APFU: tee-shirt, shorts, socks - ONLY.
3. In-processing. APFU: tee-shirt, shorts, (jacket), sweat pants, white socks, sneakers, and issued PT reflective belt.
4. CAX Course Classes: Battle Dress Uniform (BDU), Desert Camouflage Uniform (DCU), Army Combat Uniform (ACU).
5. Social Functions: Casual attire. Course functions are usually held off base in the immediate town of Grafenwöhr. Your dress and appearance will represent the United States Army as an ambassador in a foreign land. Dress appropriately.
6. CAX Graduation: Battle Dress Uniform (BDU), Desert Camouflage Uniform (DCU), Army Combat Uniform (ACU).
7. Recommendation for additional uniforms and equipment to bring to the course is listed in the CAX Recommended Packing List at Enclosure 11.